WELCOME BACK!

Dear Parishioners,

Per State of Connecticut guidelines, as of Thursday, October 8, 2020, we are now able to welcome up to 200 people in attendance for public Masses. Please be assured that we are continuing to provide for social distancing in both of our parish churches via roping off pews, everyone must wear a mask, making hand sanitizer readily available, and cleaning the churches after Masses. We will also be making announcements before communion to remind all of our parishioners of the guidelines for receiving the Eucharist (maintain at least two pew-lengths when in line, encouraging parishioners to receive communion via hand, if you wish to receive communion on the tongue please wait until the end of the line).

We realize that many of our parishioners are still uncomfortable returning to public Masses. Archbishop Blair has granted dispensation to attend Sunday Mass to everyone in the Archdiocese of Hartford through November 28, 2020 in light of the current situation. We still encourage everyone to participate in the Masses offered by our parish online via Facebook and our website, or via the television Masses from the Office of Radio & Television or EWTN. Also, please remember your parish needs your financial support even when you are not able to attend. Weekly offertory may be mailed to the rectory offices or you can sign up for online giving via our website at www.annunciationnewington.com

Please be assured that we are praying for you all, and we appreciate your prayers!

Peace,

Fr. Shawn and Fr. Josh

ANNUNCIATION WOMEN'S GUILD MEMBERSHIP

Although the Guild has not been meeting, the Board members are keeping in touch and quietly working. In normal times we would have a big welcome meeting for members. This year we were not able to do that. We are accepting memberships as an ongoing process. If you have not sent your dues in, please place your $10 (cash or check) in an envelope with your name on it. It is helpful to have your name, address, email and phone number on this. Place this envelope in the baskets in the back of the church, at either St. Mary or Holy Spirit. LeeAnn Bouchard, membership chair, collects them weekly.

Thanks for your help. We look forward to seeing you at meetings or events in the spring.

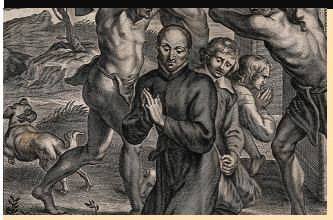
PRO-LIFE FUNDRAISER - ULTRASOUND MACHINE

The Newington Knights of Columbus Council 3884 is proud to partner with the KofC CT State Council in an Ultrasound Program, in an effort to donate an ultrasound machine in the Archdiocese of Hartford, Diocese of Norwich and Diocese of Bridgeport. The cost of the machines, may be prohibitive for our Council to act on their own; which is why we are hoping to partner with the CT State and Supreme Councils. The CT State Council has reached out to the three Dioceses, and they will identify qualified pregnancy centers in each Diocese that are in need of the machines. The goal is to have the three machines purchased for donation, and presented to the centers at the State Council's Pro-Life Mass in January. The Newington KofC is accepting private donations for this Pro-Life Fundraiser. Please consider donating to this effort, any amount will be helpful. Checks should be made out to the Newington KofC with Ultrasound Machine written in the memo section. Please submit checks to: Newington Knights of Columbus, 171 Pascone Place, Newington, CT 06111 or drop your envelope in the collection basket at Annunciation Parish and mark the envelope "ULTRASOUND FUNDRAISER."

SAINTS ISAAC JOGUES, JEAN DE BRÉBEUF, AND COMPANIONS OCTOBER 19, (D. 1642 – 1649)



Isaac Jogues and his companions were the first martyrs of the North American continent officially recognized by the Church. As a young Jesuit, Isaac Jogues, a man of learning and culture, taught literature in France. He gave up that career to work among the Huron Indians in the New World, and in 1636, he and his companions, under the leadership of Jean de Brébeuf, arrived in Quebec. The Hurons were constantly warred upon by the Iroquois, and in a few years Fr. Jogues was captured by the Iroquois and imprisoned for 13 months.

An unexpected chance for escape came to Isaac Jogues through the Dutch, and he returned to France. Welcomed home as a hero, Fr. Jogues might have sat back, thanked God for his safe return, and died peacefully in his homeland. But his zeal led him back once more to the fulfillment of his dreams. In a few months he sailed for his missions among the Hurons. In 1646, he and Jean de Lalande, who had offered his services to the missioners, set out for Iroquois country in the belief that a recently signed peace treaty would be observed. They were captured by a Mohawk war party, and on October 18, both were killed the next day at Ossernenon, a village near Albany, NY. The first of the Jesuit missionaries to be martyred was René Goupil who with Lalande, had offered his services as an oblate. He was tortured along with Isaac Jogues in 1642, and was tomahawked for having made the sign of the cross on the brow of some children.

Fr. Anthony Daniel, working among Hurons who were gradually becoming Christian, was killed by Iroquois on July 4, 1648. His body was thrown into his chapel, which was set on fire. Jean de Brébeuf was a French Jesuit who came to Canada at the age of 32 and labored there for 24 years. He went back to France when the English captured Quebec in 1629 and expelled the Jesuits, but returned to his missions four years later. Although medicine men blamed the Jesuits for a smallpox epidemic among the Hurons, Jean remained with them. He composed catechisms and a dictionary in Huron, and saw 7,000 converted before his death in 1649. Having been captured by the Iroquois at Sainte Marie, near Georgian Bay, Canada, Fr. Brébeuf died after four hours of extreme torture. Gabriel Lalemant had taken a fourth vow - to sacrifice his life for the Native Americans. He was horribly tortured to death along with Fr. Brébeuf. Fr. Charles Garnier was shot to death in 1649 as he baptized children and catechumens during an Iroquois attack. Fr. Noel Chabanel also was killed in 1649, before he could answer his recall to France. These eight Jesuit martyrs of North America were canonized in 1930.
